==== 9 JEFFRIES COMING

To Wheeling-The Champion at the

M. A. C. Next Friday Evening. James J. Jeffries, heavyweight champion of the world, will face a Wheeling nudlence. The big fellow who laid low the mighty antipodean, in other words, Bob Fitzsimmons, will give local admirers the opportunity to feast their eyes on his brawny form next Friday evening at the Metropolitan A. C.'s prove a great drawing card, for all the world loves a champion.

Manager Winder, of the club, made arrangements for Jeffries' appearance arrangements for Jeffries' appearance through negotiations with Manager W. A. Brady yesterday. Jeffries is to show in Pittsburgh on Thursday, and suitable inducements caused Brady to make a Wheeling date. With its characteristic enterprise, the club immediately set about getting up a good bill for the evening, and in addition to six rounds between Jeffries and his sparring partner, Jim Daly, Oscar Gardner and Joe Hopkins were matched for ten rounds. As Gardner is conceded as good as Dixon there will be two champions, the feather and the heavy, to appear.

This great listic bill will draw lovers of the game from Little Washington, Sistersville, Mannington and other towns within a radius of one hundred miles.

BASE BALL COMMENT.

The following changes have been made in the schedule of the Inter-State hage ball league, as announced by Pres-Ment C. B. Power: New Castle at Mansfield June 22, 23, 24, instead of June 26, 28; Youngstown at Mansfield June 20, 21, instead of June 29, 20, July 1; Mansfield at New Castle June 26, 27, 28, Instead of June 22,23, 24; Mansfield at Instead of June 22,23, 24; Mansfield at Youngstown June 29, 29, July 1, Instead of June 19, 29, 21. The changes were made on account of the races at Mansfield. The game scheduled between Port Wayne and Youngstown at Fort Wayne, July 17, will be played June 18. The Rame scheduled between Dayton and Grand Rapids, scheduled for August 19, will be played June 15. The same scheduled between Wheeling, and Dayton at Dayton, July 18, was played June 4. The game between Dayton and Grand Rapids, scheduled for August 12, will be played September 10.

Wheeling has now seen all the Interstate team. As to their relative strength, opinions, of course, differ, but here is one: Youngstown, Fort Wayne, Toledo, New Castle, Mansfield, Grand Rapids, Dayton. Ahead of all these, equally as a matter of course, Wheeling Luns place the Stogies. Take the individual players, and where is there a player in another team who outclasses ours?

Manager Torreyson says he fears the Wheeling team right now more than any team in the league. He thinks the addition of Taylor and Babb makes them the strongest in the league.—Grand Rapids Democrat.

The senatorial convention will be held at Steubenville to-morrow for the joint district composed of Belmont and Ilarrison counties, and Jefferson and Columbiana counties. There have been but three candidates named for the place, W. V. Blake and J. N. McCoy, of Columbiana, and Frank B. Archer, of this county. The nomination of the latter is a foregone conclusion, Jefferson' and Harrison counties being practically sold for him, while the delegates from his home county were practically selected by him. His name will be presented to the convention by Judge J. W. Hollingsworth, and the convention will be occuposed of 204 delegates, of which Archer will have 51 from Belmont county, 26 from Harrison, and in all probability 45 from Jefferson, or a total of 132, while Blake and McCoy will have 72 to divide between them if they go before the convention at all.
